MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Director's Meeting with Senator J. W. Fulbright re Psychological Assessments

25X1A

1. On 29 April the Director and [] visited Senator Fulbright in his office in response to the Senator's previously expressed interest in the Agency's experience with psychological assessment. [] described his own work in this field pointing out that often the experts disagreed as to just what valid conclusions could and could not be developed by available methods.

2. According to the Director, Senator Fulbright was interested and grateful.

3. During their conversation Senator Fulbright again brought up the question of access to National Estimates and the Director explained the delicacy of his position and asked the Senator not to "get him in trouble." The Senator said he appreciated the problem and did not pursue the matter further.
